THE OLD ROMAN.

EX-SENATOR ALLEN G. THURMAN

PASSES AWAY.

One of Ohio's Greatest Men and a Statesman Who Will Live in History—Eighty-two Years Old.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 12.—Allen G. Thurman died this afternoon at 5:15 o'clock. His death was quite sudden, though he has been in very feeble health for some time. Late he was so ill that his death was momentarily expected, but he rallied and though still feeble, it was thought he would linger perhaps the winter through.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Allen G. Thurman, a noted American jurist and statesman, was born at Lynchburg, Va., November 13, 1813, and was a descendant of Joseph Hewes, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. When 6 years of age he accompanied his parents to Chillicothe, Ohio, and was educated at the academy in that city. He began life as a surveyor, but studied law in the office of Gov. William Allen and was admitted to the bar in 1835. In 1844 he was elected a representative in congress and served one term, declining a renomination. In 1851 he was elected to the supreme bench of Ohio and for two years was chief justice of that tribunal. He was the Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio against Rutherford B. Hayes in 1868, but was defeated. He became United States Senator March 4, 1869, and was re-elected in 1874. As soon as formed what is known as the "Thurman aid" to control the execution by the Pacific roads of their contracts with the government, and secured its passage.

At the national Democratic conventions of 1876, 1880 and 1884 he was a candidate for the presidential nomination, and, at the convention of his party in 1888, was made the candidate for vice-president. He died in 1891, but was re-elected and has since remained at his home in Columbus, O., where he has resided since 1863. For a number of years Mr. Thurman has been in feeble health and therefore not in active life.

Committee Meeting Called.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Christian county is hereby called to meet at the city court room in Hopkinsville at 1:30 o'clock p. m., Monday, Jan. 6, 1896. All members, including those who have been notified by letter of their appointment, are requested to attend.

W. R. HOWELL, Sec.

Colored Baptizing.

The converts taken into the Virginia Street Colored Baptist Church, as a result of the meeting just closed, were baptized in the river Sunday morning by Eld. Williams. There were 36 persons baptized. A large crowd witnessed the ordinance.

DEATHS.

YOUNG.—Miss Mattie Young, oldest daughter of Dr. Jas. A. Young, died Saturday at 10 o'clock, after two weeks' illness of consumption. She was 24 years old and had for the last two or three years been a teacher in the public schools. Her death was a severe shock to a large circle of relatives and friends. Up to the time she was taken sick, she was the very picture of health and vigor, as she rode to and from daily work on her bicycle. Miss Young was a member of the First Christian church and made herself a useful member in every department of church work. The funeral service, conducted by Rev. J. W. Mitchell, was held at the church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The interment followed at Hopewell cemetery.

EARL.—Mr. Jack Earle, one of the oldest settlers in the county, died at his home near Manganese, Saturday, December 15. He was nearly 90 years old and had lived nearly all his life in that neighborhood. The remains were interred in the burying ground at Christian Privilege church, Hopkins county; Sunday.

CHERRY.—Mrs. Mary Cherry, wife of Mr. Chas. B. Cherry, of Longview, died on the 5th inst. of consumption, in the 55th year of her age. She was a consistent member of Salem Baptist church and her funeral was preached on the following day by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Cheek.

Three young women were in the city yesterday and picked up many dimes by shining shoes of gentlemen. It's a new idea and of course it takes immensely. The women remain in the city each day—Evansville Courier.

THE ASYLUM PLACES.

Belief that the Principal Ones Have Been Settled Upon.

It comes from a source that no longer admits of doubt that Gov. Bradley has made up his mind in regard to some of the best places at the Hopkinsville Asylum. The appointments may be made at any time, to take effect as early in January as they can be confirmed by the Senate.

For Superintendent, Dr. Ben Letcher, of Henderson, is the lucky applicant. His appointment has been definitely determined upon and the Governor has announced his decision in the matter. Dr. Letcher is said to be a good man for the place.

Dr. Melvin Roher, of Central City, was an applicant for Superintendent will be the first assistant physician. This tip also comes straight. Dr. Roher is about 45 years old and is a married man with four or five children. He is chairman of the Republican Committee of Muhlenberg county and a warm friend of Dr. James.

There are about fifty applicants for Steward, three of them from this city. Lige Sebres and Alex Anderson are backing Dave Wiley; John Feland and Capt. Jas. McDaniel are pushing. Dr. Jas. F. Rogers has the endorsement of all the party leaders and his appointment is regarded as practically certain. As published by the Banner during the campaign he "stood in" with all hands from Hunter down and the result is that he has the endorsements of Congressmen Hunter and Clegg, Gov. Wright, Senators Landes, James, Deboe, and representatives from the entire western end of the State. Locally he is backed by Messrs. Prowse, Candler, Breathitt, Landes and all of the party leaders in North Christian, where the white Republicans mostly reside. He also has the active support of E. T. Franks, who is a member of the state legislature, and Capt. Jas. Clegg, who is against Sebres and Wiley.

Putting all these elements of strength together, to a Democrat up a tree it looks like he will be a sure winner. Gov. Bradley is too shrewd a politician not to recognize the endorsements of the office-holders of the biggest Republican county in Western Kentucky, and Mr. Rogers is fortunate in having nearly all of them on his side.

MATRIMONIAL.

LEECH-RYAN.—This evening, in St. Louis, Mr. Thomas C. Leech, of Paducah, will be married to Agnes Ryan, a traveling woman well known in this city. Mr. Leech met his fiancee at Hot Springs several weeks ago, and it was a case of love at first sight, and before leaving the popular resort the couple were engaged, and the date set as given above.

MISS RYAN is the widow of Col. Frank H. Ryan, a millionaire member of the St. Louis Board of Trade, who died only a year ago, leaving his wife, who is only 26 years of age, an immense fortune.

SISTER SMITH.—At noon to-morrow Mr. A. L. Shriner, a prominent Nashville stock dealer, and Miss Annie Smith, daughter of Mr. J. J. Smith, of Gracey, will be married by Rev. T. V. Joiner. The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's parents. The bridegroom will be dressed, after which the couple will drive to this city and take the 5:33 train for Nashville, where they will make their home in future.

WILKINS-MCCOY.—Mr. E. S. Wilkins, of the Goshen neighborhood, and Miss Nancy McCollipin, daughter of Mr. Barnett McCollipin, were married at her home last Wednesday night, Rev. J. A. Allison officiating. They had been sweethearts for the last twenty years and had been engaged to be married for twelve years.

ROSS-Lewis.—Mr. James B. Ross, one of Madisonville's most popular young society men, will be married on Thursday, December 19, to Miss M. B. Lewis; the ceremony will be performed in the Episcopal church at Clinton, Miss., where the young lady is staying with her parents.

JONES-POWELL.—Mr. E. N. Jones, and Miss M. C. Powell, of the Allegre neighborhood, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Levi Powell, by Rev. J. Goodman, last Wednesday.

Carr Jump the Track.

Late Thursday evening as an L. & N. freight was entering the yards in the city two box cars jumped the track and it took several hours to clear up the wreck. The south bound mail was delayed two weeks. Nobody hurt.

Pioneer Capitalist Dead.

Capt. John Weller, aged 70 years, pioneer capitalist, died in Kansas City, Mo., Tuesday, after a prolonged illness. He was born at Russellville, Ky. In 1850 he married, at Jacksonville, Ill., Miss Jane Nelson, daughter of the late Col. E. H. Nelson.

CREAM OF NEWS.

IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN
HAS IT.

Afraid of Whitecaps—Court at Eddyville—
Hand Cut Off—Colored Baptizing—A
New Schedule—Committee to Meet—
Starved to Death.

The New L. & N. Schedule.

The two new fast trains were put on the L. & N. Sunday and a new time card has been arranged and is now in effect. No. 93, the new southbound Chicago Flyer, passes this city at 6:47 a. m., and returning leaves here at 9:12 p. m. These trains do no longer stop between Evansville and Nashville, only stopping for a few minutes at a point along the line. No. 53, the St. Louis Express, which formerly passed here at 4:30 a. m., now passes at 6 a. m., and northbound it leaves at 9:05 p. m. The St. Louis fast mail, south bound, leaves this city on the old time, viz: 10:45 a. m. Going north it leaves at 10:40 a. m. The Nashville express leaves at 7:06 a. m. instead of 5:25, and arrives at 8:43 p. m., instead of 8:50 p. m. The St. Louis express will stop at Cascy, Pembroke and Trenton, when flagged, for passengers going to Louisville and all points east, but will not "drop off" for those points. Passengers from Clarksville or other places south, on the Memphis line, will take the accommodation, which connects at Guthrie with Memphis train.

Dr. Jas. Rodman Honored.

Capt. Sam. M. Gaines, of Washington, D. C., writes the KENTUCKIAN this item of news, which will be gratifying to Dr. Rodman's many friends hereabouts. It will be remembered that Dr. Rodman is spending the winter in Washington. Under date of Dec. 10, Capt. Gaines writes:

"Dr. Jas. Rodman was elected last night by being elected a member of the Cosmos Club. This club is more an organization of scientists than any other similar body in the country, and its membership is made up of men who have won distinction in the sciences. The Doctor had the entree to the club last winter as a visitor and made so fine an impression upon its learned coteries that his election to membership, and, accordingly, he was elected last night."

Forsster Easily Pleased.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 12.—The surprise of the day here was the appointment this morning of Mr. Walter Forsster, managing editor of the Commercial, as assistant adjutant general. This was the position offered Campbell and refused by him.

Mr. Forsster came in from the East last night, and after a consultation with Gov. Bradley this morning his appointment and acceptance were made known. It was a great surprise, as Major Drye, of Lebanon, was regarded to be the successful man.

Mr. Forsster at once entered on his duties, and will at once move his family here. During the winter he will be the Frankfort correspondent of the Commercial and manage the paper from this end of the line. The tip is out that Mr. J. B. Lewis, a well-known newspaper man of Frankfort, will be Gov. Bradley's private secretary.

Will Clark's Children.

Quite an amusing incident took place in the home of a well-known revenue man a few days ago which was brought about by the argument between his two little children, who were good Sunday school scholars, as to the relative importance of Owensboro and Hopkinsville. The boy thought Owensboro was the more important, as the girl was of the contrary opinion. When the children first jested, the boy was in favor of Hopkinsville, the little boy suddenly changed his mind and was in favor of Owensboro.

"Oh, sister, if that great steamboat, the City of Owensboro, was to go puffing up there, little broes, where would think that Jesus Christ and all his disciples had come to town?" This ended the argument — Owensboro Messenger.

Brakeman Gets a Hand Crushed.

C. S. Veach, of this city, who has been brakeman on the L. & N. for some time, got one of his hands badly crushed while making a coupling in the Earlington yards one morning last week. So serious was his injury that amputation was necessary and an Earlington surgeon performed the operation, removing three fingers and the thumb.

Dwelling Destroyed By Fire.

The dwelling house of Mr. George Goode, of the Sinking Fork neighborhood, was consumed by fire last Wednesday, together with its entire contents. The family was absent from home when the fire occurred. Mr. Goode's loss is about $1,000. He had no insurance.

Lookout for Pickpockets.

(Louisville Post.)

The pickpockets that are operating in this State just now are the most successful thieves Kentucky has ever been infested with. Not only are the purloiners of purse making their presence felt at the State capital, where they have picked up $5,000 or $6,000 for their pains, but in a dozen more towns as well. In some places where the picking of pockets has been going on it is believed that the work has been done by expert thief. On a boat going South last week thieves managed to pick the pockets of three gentlemen without half trying, but the boldest burglar of them all is the one who removed the coin from a passenger's pocket as he lay wide awake, and says he is willing to lose the money to a pocket-pick so slick as the one who relieved him of his wealth.

Judge Jim's Beginning.

Judge James Breathitt has finished his court at Eddyville and returned home until February, when he will go to Cadiz. He adopted some new court rules that will also be enforced here and elsewhere in the district. One of these prohibits smoking in the court room and Commonwealth's Attorney Garnett will be the first man to have to be made to conform to his pipe. After a little grumbling all hands came to the conclusion that the rule was a good one. Judge Breathitt carried out his promise and appointed a Democrat, a Republican and a Populist as jury commissioners for Lyon county. He appointed Thos. G. Jones to succeed Master Commissioner Thos. H. Molloy. He was the recent Republican candidate for the legislature.

Fries from White Caps.

Andrew Harrison, an old man from Mannington, and a federal pensioner, was in the city yesterday with his team, for the purpose of leaving the county and state, on account of threats from so-called white caps. There have been troubles of some character between Harrison and his family and it seems citizens of the vicinity took the matter in hand and warned him to leave under threats of his life. Upon reaching this place Harrison told some of his acquaintances who persuaded him to return home and pay no attention to the threats of those who were playing upon his fears.

Gov. Bradley's Encounter.

Few of inauguration day's great crowd, and not even the newspaper men, knew of Gov. Bradley's personal encounter, which he knocked out a pickpocket. The latter, working with confederates, went to engage the Governor in a personal encounter, expecting that as easily as he could grab him he could be easily disposed of. He had gotten along to where he called the Governor a liar, but the new Executive knocked him down so quickly, that no crowd had time to gather, and his "pals" could do nothing but sneak away—Capital.

Lafayette News.

LAFAYETTE, Dec. 16.—The Baptists are having quite a revival here. Many of the most prominent citizens are interested and there have been a number of conversions. The meeting is conducted by Revs. Couch and Dorris. Several have already united with the church.

The new school house here has been completed and a flourishing school is being conducted by Prof. E. J. Murphy and son, of Fembrooke.

"Tiger" Hunters Work.

Russellville is now one of the dryest in the State. The hottest war ever waged against blind tiger there is on, and has resulted in many captures. The tiger has been behind the bars and warrants are out for several others. Six of the tigers are negroes. The better class of citizens have determined to break up the tiger business in that place it seems.

He Starved to Death.

(Todd County Times.)

Mr. Riley Wright, a well-to-do and highly respected citizen of Todd Todd, died at his home Sunday morning last, aged fifty years. Mr. Wright had been a long sufferer from stomach trouble, and a few days before his death his condition was so violent that the sufferer could retain no food whatever; and he consequently died a horrible death from starvation.

Makes a Bad Start.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 10.—The first official act of Governor Bradley was the granting of a pardon to George Ferguson, of Louisa, who has not been tried. Ferguson, at the election last Saturday, tried to shoot a Carroll worker. He was arrested for carrying concealed weapon, but has only had a preliminary hearing.

OFFICE 612 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

The new Governor is receiving many letters from ladies all over the State, says a correspondent, protest against the appointment of untrained physicians of the State asylums. All of the present superintendents are unmarried, two being bachelors and the other a widower and this fact has been a great saving to the State. The physicians are entitled to board and lodge their families at public expense and the smaller the families the better it is for the State. We fail to see what the lady letter writers are driving at.

Gov. Bradley's first official act was to pardon before trial a ward runner who tried to shoot a Democrat in the special election at Louisville, and who was held for carrying a concealed weapon. The offender was a man who did not live in the district where the election was held, but was one of the numerous toughs sent into it to intimidate voters and prevent a fair election. Gov. Bradley had made a bad start, but it is at least gratifying to the rest of the State that Louisville was the first to be given a taste of his "offensive partisanship."

The newspaper boys are all pleased at the appointment of Walter Foster to the position of assistant adjutant general. The place is one of the minor sinecures at the Governor's disposal and his friends are surprised that the genial managing editor of the Commercial should have been so easily satisfied. He was entitled to something better than a $1,200 place.

Herr Ahwardt, the new foreigner who has come to this country to denounce the Jews, had a venerable egg thrown at him at his first attempt to lecture in New York. Louis Silberman, who threw the hen fruit was arrested and put under a bond of $500.

Judge Chas. G. Richie was one of the Louisville sheep who was sheared in the country town of Frankfort at the inauguration. The pickpockets stole his entire shirt front, containing two valuable diamonds stud. Fortunately they did not get the gold filling out of his teeth.

Registered Swango is preparing a statement that his friends claim will completely exonerate him from the re-accusations against his honesty as an officer. Inspector Gardner will also make a further report correcting some errors in his former report.

Some things are coming to light before Bradley's administration is a week old. For instance Henry S. Club, of the Louisville Alpineer, one of the bolting Democrats who helped to defeat Hardin, has been appointed a colonel on the new Governor's staff.

We believe the Louisville Post slanders Tom Carroll when it says he will not vote for Blackburn even though he should be the caucus nominee. Mr. Carroll may do a foolish thing occasionally, but he will never be a traitor to his party.

The gold reserve is melting away. It is down to less than $76,000,000 and $4,000,000 more will be shipped to Europe this week. This will bring it within $20,000,000 of the dead line.

The new railroad commission has been organized by the election of John C. Wood, chairman, and Sam D. Brown, of Louisville, secretary. The secretary gets $1,200 a year.

Miss Christine Bradley will not return to school just yet, but will remain with her parents and help to christen the new administration. This is a pun.

The Democratic National Committee will meet in Washington Jan. 16 to fix the time and place for the National Convention.

Congressman Clardy has introduced a bill for a public building in this city and will work hard to get it through.

John W. Langley and John Fitzpatrick, both of Prestonsburg, are already announced as candidates for Congress in the Tenth district.

BALD-HEADED CLUB.

COL. W. R. HOWELL ELECTED PRESIDENT BY ACCLAMATION.

His Eloquent Inaugural Address—Incidental Discussion of Ward Politics—His Opinion of Some People With Hair On Their Heads.

THE annual election of officers in the Bald-headed Club is always an event of the greatest importance.

For the last three or four years the contests for President have been so exciting that personal conflicts have been narrowly averted more than once. A year ago when Col. Dave Wiley was defeated by Col. Chas. Pyle by one vote, there were charges of stuffing the ballot box, false counting and other grave offenses and for awhile there was serious danger of a split in the Club, but harmony was finally restored and when Col. Pyle was elected he invited his enemy to take something with him, the latter accepted and they took a walk together. Subsequently when President Pyle appointed Col. Wiley to represent Hopkinsville Club No. 1, Knights of the Shining Path, at the Bradley inauguration, the reconciliation was complete and the former rivals became such fast friends that they do not hesitate now to borrow money from each other.

It was generally expected that Col. Wiley would be a candidate for President again this year, but the genial colonel magnanimously declined, saying he favored a Democrat for that office since the Republicans had everything else to offer.

For one he did not want the whole earth and was content to let a Democrat preside over the Bald-headed Club, since there was no salary attached to the position.

All of this had become known in advance of the meeting Saturday night and when Col. Wiley got out of the room he turned to Col. Col. W. R. Howell as the proper man to fill the position that had been so worthy filled by Col. L. H. McKee, S. H. Clagett, Buckner Leavell, Clarence Blakemore and A. W. Pyle.

It was a few minutes past the regular hour when President Pyle stepped down the richly carpeted aisle, according to the custom, to call for order on the marble-topped table with a twenty-dollar gold piece for a gavel.

As soon as the roll call was completed, President Pyle announced, as the first order of business, the election of a President for the ensuing year.

Nominations were called for. Col. Wiley was in a graceful Hall speech of quarters of an hour nominated Col. Howell and moved that he be elected by acclamation. The motion was carried by a rising vote and Col. Wiley and Tibbs were appointed to escort the new President to the chair. The members drew up a list of their needs in an effort to catch every item of the inaugural address Col. Howell was expected to make. It was well known that he was a man of few words, of extreme modesty and great conscientiousness and it was expected that his speech would be worth listening to in many respects.

Col. Howell wore a happy smile and a standing collar when he faced the crowd before him. He also wore a pair of spectacles which glittered a diamond of unusual brilliancy, that he had bought for the occasion at Col. Cooper's Diamond-Grocery. Col. Cooper who needs no guardian to look after his business interests, arose as soon as a score of electric lights had focused their rays on Col. Howell's head-light, and when Col. Howell had removed his coat over the repulsive jewel, as some of the members had weak eyes and had left their goggles at home. Having placed his handkerchief over the sparkler and cleared his throat, Col. Howell spoke as follows to wit:

BROTHER COLONELS:
I can find no words to express the gratification I feel on this occasion, although I am told that I am 130 years old in the English language. Suffice it to say that my heart is overflowing with the emotion I would conceal if I could. To reach the highest position of trust in this noble order is enough to satisfy the ambition of any man, and I shall do all in my power to merit the distinguished honor you have conferred upon me.

I call upon you all and tell to bear witness that I own my election to an combination, conspiracy or corruption. The office has sought the man. A Cincinnati was taken from his plow to become a Roman Consul, so have I been taken from my clientage to

"I have made no promises to be broken like pie-crust. I have asked no favors to be forgotten after my election. Let me pause here to say that I have nothing but contempt for those who make such promises. There are men here-to-night who have been in politics and have known what it is to be slaughtered in the houses of professed friends. They have taken to their bosoms sick serpents in human form, who when warmed into life have turned upon and bitten the friends who have received them. I have seen such political work in this town who have betrayed their best friends, disdained themselves and merited the fate of Ananias, but I thank God they were not baldheaded men. No member of this Club ever proved himself a false friend. Where is there a baldheaded man who ever broke a promise? I have tried many times to break a promise and in the presence of witnesses? Where is there one who ever begged favors for himself, only to stick his venomous fangs into his benefactor? There are such men in Hopkinsville as I am sure you all know them and the public knows them. I repeat that in coming into this office I have promised no two men the same thing and therefore will not find it necessary to show myself a liar and merit the scorn and contempt of decent men. I can look you all in the face and feel that I can win your respect because I have won it myself. I accept the office which you have elevated me and I will perform its duties to the best of my ability."

All of the minor officers were re-elected and the Club proceeded to the transaction of routine business. The new president and his membership were received, which will be acted upon at the next meeting.

President Howell then called attention to the fact that Christmas would occur this year on the 25th of December, after which the Club adjourned.

QUOTATIONS.

LOUISVILLE KY., Dec. 11.—Cattle—Receipts 415 and 45 calves. Shipments 25. The demand was light today, the market ruled extremely slow throughout the day, there was no life or activity whatever in the trade; prices were generally about 10c lower than on Monday, and more especially in the decline felt on account of staff. Extra heavy cattle very dull. At the close a good many cattle left over in pens unused. The outlook is not very flattering. We look to see a great many Christmas cattle on the market in the next week or two, but we look to see this class of cattle sell much below expectations.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know

Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and many most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that most Castoria is now sold by all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its forms, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proved to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 33 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

THE FRILLED LIZARD.

One of the Most Attractive Members of the Reptile Family.

In an article on European subjects of interest the New York World gives the first place in the list to the frilled lizard, which has recently come to the London zoological gardens, the greatest collection of animals in the world, and one of the few institutions of which the collection is the most complete. The frilled lizard also bears the dignified name of chlamydosaurus kingii. He is a graceful and beautifully colored reptile, with an arrangement of skin behind his head not unlike a pair of wings. He can open and close these wings at pleasure. Apparently he spreads them solely for the purpose of calling attention to his beauty and his superiority to ordinary lizards.

No Wonder.

"You seem very uncomfortable," said Mrs. Cayenne.

"I am exceedingly uncomfortable. I have something on my mind."

"Ah! Then it's no wonder." Washington.

It Must Have Him.

"Begin at the beginning and be at the top." A splendid advice to be sure.

And yet it is not the best hint we can drop. To the man who dies well for a living.

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic for all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life? He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. His sufferings match, if little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belching and heartburn; headaches and biliousness, and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost sure to follow. The body is holding poisons, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison being reabsorbed into the blood may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation; cure it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that.

Send 25 cents in one-cent stamps to "World Dispenser of Medical Assistance," Buffalo, N.Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page COMMON MEDICAL ADVISER, illustrated.

IT CLEARED THEM ALL.

Mr. Henry Shira, Girard, Ala., says:

"Two years ago I had a severe case of Grippe and could not recover from its effects. About a year ago I tried King's Royal Cement and was soon well. It also cured me of bowel trouble which had been for four years and I find it to be quite curative for headache. It cured my wife of Grippe also and she says it is the best thing she can get for Asthma and Vertigo. I heartily recommend it as a good family medicine." New package, large bottle, 108 doses $1. For THE BLOOD AND LIVER.

Beniah S. Winfrey, of Hopkinsville, Ky., writes the following:

"We have used Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pill and regard them as the best blood purifier and liver medicine that we have ever found.

Hood's Pills are especially prepared for the use of physicians and their wives.

Then he took charge of the bar at the Delevan house; then he ran six or more stores, and finally he drifted into the granite paving business. Free work in the language of the street, he had to do a great deal of it.

Then he took up masonry. Then he took up blacksmithing and cast iron.

He has no faults. He is a home and industrious, but so quick as lightning at a dead. Here is the story of one of his acts of lightning.

"The '90' streetcar drivers were in a bind and they were brought to Mr. Brady's office. He was in a terrible state of mind, as his master of course, Mr. Brady, who had made him for much investment. That was Friday, Friday night. Mr. Brady took the train to Providence and spent Saturday there making his examination and examining him with a system some experts would have taken two weeks. But on Monday morning, bright and early, Mr. Brady was back in Wall street advising his associates to go into the deal. At noon Monday a contract for $18,000,000 was concluded, and the deal so hotly made that it became one of the most profitable investments in the world.

Mr. Brady's wealth is estimated at $25,000,000.

MARYLAND MONUMENT.

Erected in Brooklyn to Commemorate a Seed of Herodias.

The monument in commemoration of the bravery of the famous "Maryland 400" in the battle of Long Island was dedicated recently at Brooklyn, N. Y., with imposing ceremonies. The monument was erected by the Maryland society.

"Maryland's 400" achieved success by holding the British army in check in a very critical time, while the Americans were retreating within the trenches of their line, known as the "line of defense."

The monument is 40 feet high, with a fair-like appearance, the top being a log house situated in the woods, and have been only too well pleased to secure a warm meal. She never betrays surprise when a party of hunters come to the door and ask for food. Let the party number one or 15 it is all the same to her. On many occasions she motions them inside and feeds them the meal. She never apologizes for her fare nor never praises it, and has never been known to ask any price for it. If the hunters offer her remuneration she takes it, and if not she does not complain.

Her face is wrinkled and her dungy clothes do not掩藏 her activity does not seem to diminish, although the long ironwood branch upon which she sits cut a notch for each year of her life shows 94 notches.

The old woman lives along the year round, the monotony of her life being broken only by the visits of the hunters, and this is only during the month of December. If she realizes that the the British, Washington rightly anticipated that they would soon move upon New York. While the British were rapidly retreating to the Hudson, Washington provided for the defense of New York by fortifying the different approaches. As an attack from Brooklyn was highly overlooked and commanded New York, seemed most probable, intrenchments were constructed, and a fortification was built on the north—where the Brooklyn and the United States navy yard is now located—to Gowanus river and bay, one and a half miles southwest, opposite Governor's Island. The inner "line of defense"—which crossed Fulton street near its junction with Flatiron avenue—was intersected by a dry-dock work fort, mounting an aggregate of thirty-five cannon. There were also three detached forts in the rear, besides a redoubt to cover a possible approach across the Gowanus river.

BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT.

This invaluable remedy is one that ought to be in every household. It will cure your rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains, cuts, bruises, burns, frosty feet and ears, sore throat and sore chest. If you have lame back it will cure it. It penetrates to the seat of the disease. It will cure stiff joints and contracted muscles after other remedies have failed.

Those who have been crippled for years have used Ballard's Snow Liniment and thrown away their crutches and been able to walk as well as ever. It will cure you. Price 50 cents. Free trial bottles at R. C. Hardwick's Drug Store.

In 1892 Mr. A. L. Goldwater, who owns three retail drug stores in New York City, learned of the great value of Chamberlain's Cold Remedy for colds, cough and whooping cough, ordered a supply for his customers. It met with so much favor that he soon found it necessary to order more, and during the winter sold over two gross of the remedy. He says it gives the best satisfaction of any cough cure he has ever had. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by R. C. Hardwick, druggist.

IS A WOMAN HERMIT.

Mrs. McDonald's Lonely Life in a Michigan Forest.

Since 1890 she has lived in the woods alone, eating what she can find, wearing what she can make, and sleeping where she can. She says an occasional passing hunter.

Away up on the banks of the swift-flowing Little River, in the northern part of the lower peninsula of Michigan, lives Mrs. McDonald, now 45 years of age, but known as "The Widow McDonald." Almost every settler in Michigan either knows her or has heard of her, and the hundreds of deer hunters from Illinois, Indiana, and in fact all of the states, who journey to the deer grounds of the "Rifle district" every fall, have jotted her down in their notebooks as a queer, odd character with a history which she will not disclose.

She lives alone in a log house of fairly simple dimensions, the nearest neighbor being ten miles away. She is in the very heart of the deer country, and has for many years been a favorite hunting ground for those who have stumbled upon the log house situated in the woods, and have been only too well pleased to secure a warm meal. She never betrays surprise when a party of hunters come to the door and ask for food. Let the party number one or 15 it is all the same to her. On many occasions she motions them inside and feeds them the meal. She never apologizes for her fare nor never praises it, and has never been known to ask any price for it. If the hunters offer her remuneration she takes it, and if not she does not complain.

Her face is wrinkled and her dungy clothes do not掩藏 her activity does not seem to diminish, although the long ironwood branch upon which she sits cut a notch for each year of her life shows 94 notches.

The old woman lives along the year round, the monotony of her life being broken only by the visits of the hunters, and this is only during the month of December. If she realizes that the Bad dreams distress the man whose digestion is out of order. Constipation causes him to sleep less than in the infernal regions. People who are troubled with constipation take a sleep bath and restlessly. Some do not sleep at all, and when they do sleep, they dream a very long time. It gets up with the rich, and goes to bed. He is listless and without energy. The chances are he has "heat" before his eyes, has headache and is ill. What nonsense it is to let a condition of that sort continue. Nineteen-tenths of all the world comes from constipation and need of its cure.

It is a bad thing and a serious thing you don't take the right medicine. Dr. Price's Pill, Felt's Pill and the like for the cure of constipation. The "Felt's" are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One is a laxative, two a mild cathartic. Every bowel which ever used them has a good record for the way they prevent and cure serious illness than any other remedy ever sold. Druggists sell them, and an honest druggist will not try to sell you something else.

Dr. Price's Compt. Sense Medical Adviser is the greatest family doctor book ever published. It explains human physiology in plain language. It gives scientific knowledge of the human body, and is written in simple language. It has a tremendous value, $100,000,000 at $1,000 each, bound in cloth, and is the best book on the market in all respects except that it is bound in straw manilla paper covers. A copy will be almost given away to anyone who will pay the postage. Write to Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., Newark, N. J., for details.

Curious Feat Performed by an Englishman Now in America.

John Higgins, an Englishman who is exhibiting in San Francisco, jumps into a basket of eggs every night and out again without breaking a shell. The eggs are piled up in a heap, and when he jumps upon one side, looks at the cherubim white hen products for a few minutes and then, with a sudden spring, he is in the air. He jumps at the basket, and just as his body reaches a point over the eggs seems to lower himself, his feet touch the eggs, and then, like a swallow starts to fly again over the basket.

It is a very pretty trick and always evokes applause, for to the spectators it seems certain that the jumper will sink through a mass of scrambled yolks and fall dead.

Higgins jumps over a bucket of water, and in his flight drops to the water, wets the soles of his shoes, and then clears the obstacle without a splash. It is a very pretty exhibition. To show his ability to control his body while in the air, and to rise from the surface of the water, he frequently has the basket only half full. The difference between this jump and the first is very marked. The egg jump is made by lowering the toes while in the air. The eggs are thus touched very lightly, and the trick is done. In the water jump, however, the whole foot has to be placed squarely on the surface, and the water splashes a great deal more than in the egg jump.

One of his turns which is greatly admired is that known as the bell jump. An ordinary bell is placed on top of a chair, which is on top of a table. Higgins clears the obstacle and rings the bell in the flight. This is done by placing a foot on the nose of the bell while in the air. The trick is done.

The New Bohemian (Cincinnati), Oct. 4 for December is the most attractive number of that sprightly magazine that has yet appeared.

The leading feature is a splendid review of the life and work of Eugene Field, by his friend and co-worker, LeRoy Armstrong. The frontispiece is a portrait of the dead poet, the latter being one of the best ever published.

The "Touch Hands and Part," is an intensely dramatic story by Percival Pollard, the brilliant western journalist. It is a strong conception and skillfully told, being both true to life and true to art.

"American Artists Abroad," by Harry C. Chapman, is an admirable article on the work of American painters at the Berlin exposition. It is rather spicy but sympathetically discriminating and just.

James Knapp Reeve continues his interesting and instructive series of "Talks with Young Authors," and this month deals with the more practical part of their trade.

A valuable contribution to the literature of wheelwork is an article on "The Southern Girl and The Bicycle," by F. W. Hutchins. It presents in an entirely new light the ethical possibilities of the steel steed, and shows in an original manner its influence on society. The article contains much delicious humor, some dexterous touches of sentiment and a great deal of common sense.

Among those who possess special claims upon the admiration and appreciation of the musical art of Europe and America is Prof. F. E. Williams, a bright star in the galaxy of violinists.

Having studied for years under the most eminent masters of both continents, he comes to us the peer of all. Enough cannot be said of this gentleman; indeed it is a remarkable feature of his career that long after being accorded recognition as an accomplished musician he is always an earnest and conscientious student of his art.
